

Budget Expenditure Control in the Public Service

6th – 10th November 2017

Southern Sun Garden Court, OR Tambo, Johannesburg, South Africa

This workshop is designed to equip delegates from the Government Sector with a clear understanding of budgeting and control required to achieve effective results. It begins by explaining all the jargon associated with budget expenditure and explain all the important theory and recommends a process that will be applicable in the working environment

Learning Outcomes:

- Discussing Principles of Budgeting And Expenditure Control
- Implementing Budgeting in Terms of the Organisational Strategic Plan
- Aligning Institutional Plans and Budgets
- Understanding Expenditure Forecasting and Control
- Discussing the Concept of Value-for-Money in Public Budgeting
- Applying Instruments to Ensure Public Accountability in Budgeting

Who Should Attend?

- CEO's
- Financial Directors and Managers
- Chief and Deputy Directors
- Director Finance Administration and Planning
- Chief Accountants and Accounting Officers
- Chief Risk Officer and Risk Managers
- HR Managers
- Senior Managers
- Head of Treasury
- Director or Head of Finance
- Director of Budget
- Budget Consultants

About Your Course Presenter:

B Admin, B Admin (Hons), M.Admin, Ph.D (Public Management)

He started his career at the Department of Health – Free State where he was responsible for the Financial Management including Cash Flow analysis, budgeting and expenditure control amongst others. While he was consulting to various Departments and Municipalities, He was also a part time lecturer at the University of the Free State where he lectured at under-graduate level on Public Financial Administration and Public Personnel Administration. Currently he is at the UOFS School of Management lecturing to students enrolled with the BML programme. His area of expertise, amongst others includes:

- Strategic and Integrated Performance Management
- Public and Municipal Financial Management
- Knowledge Management and Organisational Intellectual Capital
- Management and Governance
- Renewal in the Public Sector ("Reinventing Government")
- Project Management in the Public Sector

He also submitted various articles which includes Public Management and Development in a Multicultural Environment: A Contemporary Reality for Higher Education. The latest are titled Performance Management: The Evolving South African Management Model He is also the co-author of a book called: Public Management in the Information Age.

This course is rated at a NQF level 7 course. Eighteen (18) credits and certificate of competency can be earned, subject to successful completion of the assessment in the specified period stipulated at the event. If a participant chose not to complete the assessment he/she will receive a certificate of attendance only.